CARLOS
PHILLIPS
President/CEO

Greenville Chamber

Carlos Phillips began serving as President/CEO of the Greenville Chamber on March 29, 2016. Phillips brings a collaborative spirit and fresh approach to his leadership of the largest business organization in the Upstate. Under Phillips' leadership, the Greenville Chamber leads, convenes and mobilizes the business community to drive regional economic growth.

Through Phillips' leadership, the Chamber has championed developing a highly skilled workforce, removing barriers to gainful employment, increasing educational attainment for working age adults, and advocating on behalf of Upstate businesses for policies to build a globally competitive economy.

Carlos is actively engaged in numerous professional and community endeavors, including Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, United Negro College Fund Upstate Mayors Masked Ball, United Way of Greenville County, Urban League of the Upstate, and Community Foundation of Greenville.
