

A.M.P.

ANNUAL MEETING & PROFORUM

Wendy T. Wellener

Wendy T. Wellener is vice president–Shared Services. She is responsible for supply chain management for all business segments, supplier diversity, and fleet acquisition and specifications.

Wellener joined the company as a co-op student in 1986 and became a full-time employee in 1990 as an associate materials specialist in what is now Supply Chain supporting the Nuclear group.

She later served as manager–Supply Chain Services, director–Facilities Management, and director–Human Resources (Energy & Generation). She was named director–HR Workforce Strategies & Solutions in March 2010 where she was responsible for Total Rewards strategies around benefits and compensation, employee and labor relations. It was in this role that she worked with the team to launch a wellness initiative across the company known as “Well On Your Way”. She was promoted to vice president–Human Resources in July 2014 and was responsible for HR services and strategy, including the merger and acquisitions processes surrounding people. She assumed her current post in January 2018.

Wellener earned a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering and operations research at Virginia Tech. She is a past board member of Big Brothers, Big Sisters and previously participated on a workforce advisory council for the Superintendent of Richmond Public Schools. She is currently a member of the board of directors of Women Presidents' Educational Organization whose primary mission is furthering the success of women-owned businesses. She serves as the executive sponsor of Dominion Energy's flagship Women's Resource Group, We3, the largest of the companies 8 resource groups, which focuses on engaging, educating, energizing women across the company.

She has a passion for growth and development, particularly for young women, which started with her daughter and leading numerous Girl Scout troop activities and carries through to today as she focuses much of her time on mentoring and support throughout the company and in the community.

Wendy T. Wellener

Manager, Impact Spending

Kaiser Permanente